

Don Bosco, 15 other teams in fray for top honours

BY A SPORTS REPORTER

PANJIM: Defending champions of the Goa leg of 2008-09 Don Bosco School alongwith 15 other teams have already confirmed their participation for the TATA Tea Jaago Re Soccer Stars Inter School Football tournament for boys aged 15 years and under organized by High Life Management Kolkatta in association with Don Bosco College, Panjim to be held on 26th & 27th February, 2010 at Don Bosco, Panjim.

The 7 a side tournament will have the winners to go on to represent the city in the All India Finals to be held in Shillong in the month of May 2010.

During the tournament the boys will be watched closely by Head Scout Jamshid Nassiri and local scout Brahamanand Shankwalkar who will select a minimum of 3 boys from the Goa who along with 27 other boys from different parts of the country will go on to train under 2 Arsenal coaches for a 2 week period in June 2010.

There is no entry fee to the tournament and like the previous years breakfast and lunch will be provided to all participating teams. The organizers will also bear the cost of transportation (bus fare) for the teams. Schools who have not yet confirmed their entries may contact Kennedy D'Silva on 9850169370 or the Don Bosco College office for further details
